NOON DISPATCHES.

The Financial Crisis—Opening of the Stock Exchange—Speech of President Greeted with Cheers—Good Feeling at Meeting not Preserved—Decline of Stocks—Brokers Indisposed to Operate.
NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Wild steers killed two children in the fight with the September statement will show an increase of the debt. Customs dis-minished one half since the panic.
Henry J. Brooks, leather dealer, has failed.

Admiral Winslow, who commanded the Kearsarge in the fight with the Alabama is dead.

Stock exchange and the vicinity are crowded with members crowding around the President's desk waving hats and cheering. The President said, we are met again after a very unpleasant suspension for the purpose of resuming business. Your action in the interim has met with universal approbation and has been most satisfactory to yourselves; business would be carried on under rules adopted yesterday by governing the committee which the read and appointed committee to settle conditions of defaulting parties. In conclusion, he added: "All I ask now is that you help each other to bear the burden that has fallen upon us, and to so conduct business as to enable the Exchange to carry on its work successfully." Loud cheering greeted these remarks, and the members proceeded with business. Much better feeling appears to exist and opening prices of stocks show a feeling of confidence.

LATER.—Considerable pressure to sell today caused stocks to decline from one to three per cent. from the opening prices. Brokers indisposed to operate for customers on margins until affairs are now settled.

The Shreveport Pestilence—Dreadful
State of Affairs—A Touching Appeal.

SHREVEPORT, Sept. 30.—Several of the most useful citizens are among the victims of the fever. The Howard Association have opened an Orphan Asylum, which feeds nearly one-third of the population. The fever has been spreading rapidly, and is now reported from Cuba. The appeal for relief says that there are seven hundred sick. The disease requires the attention of skillful nursing. Hundreds are without means or employment, we feel that the great public will respond to this appeal, extorted by the most dire necessity. Our own resources are nearly exhausted. The wealthy are broken down, and the poor are threatened with actual starvation. The sick and dying are about to be abandoned to the elements, but the most humane of our fellow citizens, appeal not to our fellow countrymen, but to our fellow man for aid.
[Signed] L. E. SIMMONS, President of the Howard Association and all the Doctors.

The Situation in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.—In the general market a better feeling is manifested, still but little is done to remove the dead lock into which matters have fallen. Orders are here, especially for provisions, but there is very little disposition to move under the extreme circumstances. Holders of stocks are generally firm, hoping that something may soon transpire to set the wheel of commerce in motion.

Funeral of Dr. Dixie Crosby.

ANDOVER, N. H., Sept. 30.—Business is suspended in consequence of the funeral of Doctor Dixie Crosby. He was 73 years of age and Professor of surgery for 35 years.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Resumption of Smith & Seaver.—The New York Stock Board Unsatisfied But Firm—Application to Vacate the Receivership of the Bank of the Commonwealth, etc.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The resumption of Smith & Seaver was received with cheers at the stock board. The impression prevails that all the leading houses will pull through. Sterling unsettled but improved.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The stock market is still without excitement and closes firm.

Application was made in the U. S.
Circuit Court today for an order enjoining the Comptroller of Currency and the Receiver of the Bank of the Commonwealth from proceeding further in the matter of the banks, also for citation to show cause why the receivership should not be vacated and the appointment declared void, on the ground that the bank had about twenty thousand dollars in deposit in Jay Cooke's bank, but that on the morning of the failure a tin box was sent from the bank to the White House. Poor Andy Johnson had about sixty thousand dollars on deposit in the First National Bank, but no tin box was sent to him.

THE LITTLE TIN-BOX BUSINESS.— [From the Louisville Courier-Journal.]—It is said that the President
Bank, but no tin box was sent to him.

Inhumanity to animals makes countless numbers of mules mourn for the loss of their tails. It is cruel to cut off the tails of horses and mules in the manner which we often see done in these days of heartlessness. We see every day on our streets numbers of poor mules that suffer because their caudal appendages are not. In some countries it is made a crime to mutilate animals in this way.

THE NORTH CAROLINA BRANCH OF THE SOUTHERN HISTORICAL SO-CIETY.—It will be seen from the following that Hon. Z. B. Vance, of Mecklenburg, one of the Vice Presidents of the Southern Historical Society, will organize in this city, on the 17th inst., the North Carolina branch of the above named Society. This is a most important work, and one which should receive the prompt endorsement and hearty co-operation of every true-hearted North Carolinian.
The object and purposes of this Society are well known to need explanation. On the 17th we look to see a large meeting of the best and purest men in our State. We hope our State exchanges will not fail to give this matter their immediate and earnest attention.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., 20th September, 1873.

Messrs. Editors.—Having been appointed one of the Vice-Presidents of the Southern Historical Society, and being ex-officio President of the auxiliary society for the State of North Carolina, I shall attempt to organize the latter on the occasion of the State Fair. I therefore earnestly request all soldiers, sailors and citizens who feel an interest in preserving the fast-perishing materials of the history of the great civil war, in which our State so distinguished a part, to meet me in Raleigh, on Friday, the 17th October, for the purpose above indicated.

Z. B. VANCE.

SANITARY.—We publish the following in relation to the sanitary condition of a portion of our city at the request of a correspondent. Our friend is not explicit as to the grievances he complains of. We were under the impression that the city was as healthy now as it ever was, and believe it to be so. Our main object in publishing the communication is to draw the correspondent out, and induce him to explain more fully what he means.

Messrs. Editors.—We are sorry that the strictest necessity compels us to call publicly on the City Commissioners to examine and have rectified the great sources of disease now existing in the Northern portion of the city.

We do feel aggrieved, that appeals should have to be made more than once on subject of such magnitude.
The health of this part of the city is suffering now, and disease will increase in violence, if the causes are not speedily removed. This I give as the opinion of a physician in the city. We do feel that great responsibility is attached to those having charge the sanitary department of the city, not less than that which rests on railroad conductors. Neglect on the part of either is nothing less than murder.

ONE DEEPLY INTERESTED.

ENTRIES FOR THE FAIR.—We commence to note the entries of articles, etc., for the State Fair, received at the office of the Secretary of the Society:

One bale of cotton, by A. G. Lee & McMackin, for P. M. Campbell, of Moore county.

Lot of jewelry, worth $15,000, by Lewis Chamberlain, of Tarboro.

Four fine horses, by L. L. Staton, of Tarboro.

Buck and ewe, by Dr. O. B. Ellis, of Franklin county.

Several fine race horses for running, by W. H. Hanford, of Williamsburg, N. Y.

Variety of Wines, by L. T. Mickey, of Forsyth county.

Fine blooded horse, by Prof. Grotz, of Hillsboro.

D. T. Harvey, of Danville, Va., has additional entries of fine horses.

Varieties of fruit trees, by Robert Bust, of Philadelphia.

Three mowers and reapers, combined, by L. H. Lee & Bro., of Bal-thore.

Grain drill and grain drill, combined, by W. N. Hamilton, of Delaware.

Garden Cultivator, by the Blymer Manufacturing Company, of Cincinnati.

ISAAC EITTINGER.—This gentleman's well known establishment on Fayetteville street is now full to its utmost capacity in the millinery line.
We are not sufficiently well posted in the details of his business to do more than to state that he is a first class dress-maker, and that his goods are of the highest quality, and at the lowest prices.

MARRIAGES.—The following is the list of marriages in this county during the past month:

WHITE.

E. M. Bledsoe and Annie M. Hinton.
Henry C. Bradley and Elizabeth Fowler.

Gideon Emory and Mary Warren.
Duke Emory and Louisa Pulley.
J. H. Fowler and E. H. Green.
A. T. S. Grendler and Edward V.
Bragg.

James H. McKee and Mildred Sasser.
A. C. Ray and Francis Paine.
A. H. Ray and Sarah Hall.
Alfred A. Thompson and Laura C.
Love.

W. D. Vessey and S. J. Holloway.
W. A. Williams and Louisa Olive.
COLORED.

Robt. Branch and Tempy Green, James Branch and Harriet Jones, Reuben Ellis and Edney McKee, Samuel Herndon and Gally Marsh, Dempsy Harris and Tabitha Chavis.

Wm. Jones and Susan Bryan, Daniel McAden and Jenny Farrar, Toney Osborn and Susan Moore, Fletcher Primus and Mary Roeder, Lewis Powell and Mary Hodge, Nelson Page and Grizzel Shepard, J. Upchurch and O. Rogers, Timothy Williams and Fanny Williams.

THE HYMNAL ALTAR.—Another of Raleigh's loveliest daughters was yesterday afternoon led to the hym-enal altar. We have reference to the marriage of Dr. James McKee, one of our most popular young men and a rising physician, and Miss Mildred Sasser. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's mother, on Blount street, Rev. Dr.
Mason, of Christ (Episcopal) Church, officiating, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Soon after the completion of the ceremony the bridal couple took the train on the North Carolina Railroad for a short trip to Columbia, S. C. We are sure that all their friends will join heartily in the invocation of numberless blessings upon their heads. In adding our congratulations, we take the liberty of expressing the wish that no tear of sorrow may ever stain the fair cheek of the bride, and that the memory of the happy bridal day may ever be to them a source unalloyed pleasure.

THE JOHNSTON COUNTY MURDER TRIAL.—At the request of the defendants' counsel, in the Johnston county murder trial, we withhold in today's issue the report of the evidence of yesterday before the court, as it might possibly have an effect upon the jury. It is an invariable rule with the News to respect the opinions of Attorneys in such cases. From the communication of our reporter we learn that the trial is exciting much interest, and the court-house is thronged with an anxious audience.
The testimony was closed at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, and P. H.
Busbee opened the argument on the part of the State. He was followed by Messrs. Dorch and Abell for the prisoners, Blalock and Hood and Messrs. Spears and Cullum for David Collins. Gen. Cox will close the argument for the State.

JAMES A. LEACH, Esq.—The many friends of this gentleman in this city are glad to greet him again in our midst, though his sojourn will be a brief one. Mr. L. was formerly the efficient Vice-Principal of the Deaf and Dumb and Blind Institution, and as such discharged the duties of the office with honor to himself and advantage to the State.
Mr. Leach is now conducting a large shoe manufacturing establishment at Thomasville, and we are glad to learn that his large success has crowned his enterprise.
If we had more men of Mr. Leach's enterprise and energy our State would no longer bear the nickname of Rip Van Winkle, but would soon be ranked among the most wide-awake of the Union.

LENT'S COMING UNIVERSAL EXPO-SITION.—Lent's mammoth show, which will be in Raleigh on Friday, Oct. 20th, comes with a triple triple of fame-crowned circus articles; a splendid orchestra of twenty-five superior musicians; a stand of the best trained and beautiful circus horses and pretty ponies in the world; the grandest array of rare wild animals ever seen in captivity, and a most astonishing collection of museum curiosities. The wardrobe and paraphernalia of Lent's Circus are marvels of magnificence, and the most expensive ever manufactured.
The establishment of Mr. Lent is widely celebrated for the elegance and perfection of its appointments, as well as for the splendor, originality and novelty of its entertainments.

SPECIAL TERM FOR WAYNE COUN-TY.—Yesterday Governor Caldwell ordered a special term of the Wayne county Superior Court, Judge Buxton to preside. The special term commences on the last Monday in December.

JUGGED.—Thomas Burrl, col., was yesterday shoved into jail for obtaining goods under false pretences from J. T. Harris. Thomas could not give the $100 bail bond, and now peeps disconsolately through iron bars.

Alexander H. Stephens has contributed $500 towards the building of a Roman Catholic college in Georgia.
Robert Toombs is said to propose making a similar contribution.
